I know all about those tusks. You use a potent poison to turn humans into bleached bones.
Sorry, but I won't be fighting you in close combat, Skull Warthog!
The last time wasn't cold enough ...

I'm saying I barely even felt a chill.
Why don't you try hitting me with your stinking breath one more time?

Komugi...!
This is...
How dread-ful.

You have an unsightly way of fighting, huh.
... The black clouds.
Kazami ...
Even with your powers limited to that extent, you shouldn't lose your cool.
Black clouds ?
That's right... Back then when you used your kick, the electromagnetic waves given off by those clouds restricted the use of your power.
With that limiting factor, the most of your power you can use is probably...
Less than 20%.

No.
Those clouds should stay right where they are.

Damn it...
If only these clouds would go away...
What do you mean by that, Kazami...?
It's those clouds that are protecting Shikoku's atmo-sphere.
Check this frequency, and you'll see.
